

Catherine L. Sarkisian

August 3, 1960 - June 14, 2025

Catherine Lynne “Cat” Sarkisian, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully on June 14, 2025, in Orlando, Florida, at the age of 64.

Born in Dover, Delaware, to Lee and Frances Harris, Cat lived a life filled with love, compassion, and dedication to her family.

Her vibrant spirit and fierce presence touched everyone who had the privilege of knowing her.

Cat is survived by her devoted husband, John, her loving children Nicole, Christian, and Lindsey, and her cherished grandchildren: Isaiah, Seth, Deziah, Kenzi, Lazaria, and Nicholas. She is also survived by her dear sister, Joanna, along with many extended family members and lifelong friends who will miss her deeply.

Her legacy of love, strength, and generosity will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

“ Cat being my sister Chandys best friend and Chandy being my best friend made Cat a sister i best respect. With her open arms, that was easy to do. My fondest memory is rvery Thanksgiving and Christmas after doing Mommy's house it was a given we were gonna head to Thanksgiving/Christmas at our other family's house. Every holiday we'd walk in and no matter what or how busy the matriarch would be, she drop everything to present those open arms. Awesome women. Love you Cat. Im sure your as I write having a cocktail with Chandy, Mary and Eric...tell all I said hi.

My deares Cat, my heart is broken losing we have lost. you. What a wonderful, caring person you were, you love and hugged everyone you saw. What are we going to do without that hug and our Super Bowl Queen. My so, Chad said I'd all. I was Mom 2 to her and she was my #3 daughter. Chad was right, Chandy Cat, Mary are together again. GOD BLESS YOU.
