“ There are no words to describe the sudden loss of someone so special. I was blessed to have known Cathy as she is the sister-in-law of my sister-in-law. Her kind and sweet personality was like no other. She had a natural way of making everyone around her feel so special. She cared so deeply about others and always put them first. May God bless you Cathy and may you forever rest in peace.

“ My life will not be the same without you. Even though we did not see each other all the time. I took it for granted that you would always be there. We would grow old together and reminisce of the great times we had together. Taking our excursions to the greatest heights, raising our children together. So many memories. Cathy you were one of the most good hearted people I have ever known. Always giving of yourself to others. Your strength and kindness to others was impeccable. Your devotion to your family came first. My Brown Eyed Girl you are at Peace now. You are with God now. No more pain. No more worries. He has a one of a kind special you. You were loved so much by family and friends. Love you and will miss you in my life. I wish I could have had one more hug. But you will always be in my heart.

“ Where to begin??? We all know God always takes the best and it never seems fair to those of us that are left behind. There are so many wonderful memories of us working together at Target and our fun days off work together. Cathy could bring a smile to anyone having a bad day. We shared so much with each other about our families, and there is no doubt that she always put her family before herself. She loved each one of you with all her heart. I will miss her singing her "oldies songs" to brighten up our day. You were an amazing person and will be missed. May God comfort your family always! I love you girl!!!

“ Oh Cathy. You left us much too suddenly and at much too young of age. Your caring and thoughtfulness and super friendly personality has touched virtually everyone you came in contact with.

You were such a great person on this earth, we can only surmise that God needed your brightness at His side, to have taken you so abruptly.

You will be so sorely missed by all who knew you. You can never be replaced and will never be forgotten.

The world has lost a jewel, but the sky has gained a brighter star. Rest in Peace, Cathy. We love you.

“ Share a memory huh, how do I pick just one. How about the time we skied down the St Johns river and hauled our kitchen table home in Tim’s boat :) Your bridal shower and my baby shower. I’m so sad you’re gone Cathy. I love you.
