“ *In memory of a Good Friend and Shipmate. We will miss you.
When a shipmate passes on we traditionally say that they "Crossed Over The Bar:"*

This phrase comes from a poem by Alfred Lord Tennyson as the sailor will soon meet his 'Pilot"

*Alfred Lord Tennyson
Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,*

*But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;*

*For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.*

Gentle sailings my friend,

“ My memory Celso... Meeting up with Bonnie to hang out...and her dad coming out to meet me for the first time. Making sure his daddy's little girl is safe. Also when they made the big change to move to Orlando. Wasn't easy but Mr Celso was determined and made it work for his family. I remember visiting Orlando and seeing him filled with pride with his business. He lived the American Dream and passed it on to his children and grand children. May he rest in peace with our Heavenly Father.
