I too was able to share conversations with Cesar & I prayed for him often. He was always kind to me & I appreciated his willingness to help. May the Lord comfort his family, daughter, granddaughters with the peace that passes all human understanding as only He can impart. Hugs to you Chrissy, your mom, Myriad, & Pablo, who will miss him being he lived with you. He was in the best place, because the Lord knew what he needed most.
