

Chan "Ramdat" Singh

December 6, 1951 - November 26, 2015

Chandradat "Ramdat" Singh, 63, of Orlando, Florida, passed away Thursday, November 26th 2015.

Ramdat was born on December 6th, 1951 in Lancaster Village, South America Guyana. He married his love of his life and soul mate Hansranie "Sabo" Singh on July 12, 1982 in New York.

Ramdat is survived by two sons, Khimraj and Joshua Singh, Daughter Heamwattie "Heame" Singh and Wife Hansranie "Sabo" Singh. He also has two brothers Harry "Filla" , and Ramnat "Ramo" Singh; three sisters Pulmattie, Rajo and Kalaie.

Prior to settling in Orlando, Florida, Ramdat lived in Guyana, Canada, and New York . When he wasn't traveling state to state for business or pleasure, he was visiting Nicaragua, Panama, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Mexico, Honduras, Belize, Jamaica, St Martin, St Thomas, Grand Cayman, and Bahamas. One can say he was a well traveled man.

Ramdat was a man who wore many hats and was best known as a "Jack of all trades". There was never a job to small or big for him, and he always completed it with a smile. He can fix anything and I mean ANYTHING with a piece of duct tape, string and hammer. Those ones closest to him know him as the "Guyanese MacGyver".

With his extensive travel and educational background, Ramdat was versed in many subjects. His knowledge range from but not limited to politics, agricultural, cars, roads, technology, construction, music, and religions. Basically you name it, he knew it.

“ Dear Family, sending our love and prayers, we still can't believe he is gone. I will remember his smiling face and his hearty laugh, and the love and generosity he showed to myself, my family and everyone who knew him. I am so sorry we cannot be there, I wish circumstances were different, but know Uncle Ramdat you are in my heart and thoughts...
