JP

“ My condolences to Charles' family and friends. May Charles rest in peace. My sister Marcie and I used to play with Charles and his sister Jan when the Glaubers lived on Malvey Street in Fort Worth. Charles and I played poker - taught to us by his mom, Patty - on the front porch.

“ Chuck, Through all the twists and turns in life, through all the good and hard times, we were able to raise two fine young men together. That is our history and our legacy. To my companion of over two decades, I wish you rest, peace and blessings.
