“ Charley was an inspiration to many on a local level in the 70's, then going on to a National or even a Worldwide prominence with his writings. He will be missed by many. I had the good fortune of meeting him and his wife in the early 70's and will never forget the kindness of both of them. They will always be in my heart.

“ To Ben, Alice and Ted

I respect and love your father and my brother Charley Reese more than anybody in the world. He was,he is, forever my roll model and hero. I have learned from him life changing lessons. I am nothing, I am something now because of him. He will live in my heart forever.He is truly exceptional human being: I never forget his pure honesty, courage, indomitable spirit, especially he had no fear to justice and stand by the weak, and most important thing he truly care and respect others. When I was hungry, he brought food and how to fish, when I was down, he brought positive energy, When I need his wisdom, he brought wisdom, he was my personal coach,professional adviser. I owe him my life time.

Ben, Alice and Ted, You are my family. We will miss him, however, he will live with us his wisdom, honesty and generosity forever. He is truly exceptional human being, Brother Charley Reese I will miss dinner with you, I called you weeks ago and I told you I will take you out for dinner together I wanted talk about so many things and I wanted hear from so many things I respect and love you more than anybody on earth.

I will live with your wisdom and spirit
