

Charles Benny Thiebaud

June 26, 1939 - September 27, 2016

Charles B. Thiebaud 77 years young, Senior Chief Petty Officer, US Navy (Ret.) passed away September 26, 2016 in the comfort of his own home in Oviedo, Florida.

Charles, who was also known as Ben to his family and friends, was born in Dublin, Texas on June 26, 1939 to Jack and Merle Thiebaud. He had two brothers ; Sonny and Robert.

He joined the Navy at the age of 18 and then served his country for 31 years.

During his years in the Navy, he stumbled across a beautiful woman named Nancy who he was soon able to call his wife. With that marriage he gained two amazing step sons; Pete and William.

After retiring from the Navy, he worked as a security officer at Pinkerton and later retired from the workforce.

While working at Pinkerton, Ben gained a friendship with Cece Caro who eventually adopted him into her family for the last 23 years of his life. Ben became, like a father to Cece and Jorge Caro and like an uncle to her kids; Tiffon, Tabatha, and Thalia Caro.

Ben was preceded in death by his mother Merle, father Jack and brother Robert. Ben is survived by his brother Sonny, stepson Pete Drennen and the Caro Family.

Ben, farewell till we meet again. We wish you fair winds and following seas. When we remember you, we will smile, for memories of you were never filled with sadness and tears but with happiness and laughter. We love you Uncle Ben.

“ How do I begin to say goodbye to the man I called my father-in-law for 32 years. Ben was a truly wonderful man, step-dad, grandfather, and friend. The memories of Christmas and Thanksgivings shared in Florida is almost overwhelming. The Holiday season will never feel the same without our annual trek south. Seems like just yesterday Ben rented a house boat and we cruised the St. Johns river with him as our captain for days. Glad I have so many memories to remember him by. Thank you isn't enough to express the appreciation I feel toward Cece and Jorge and the whole Caro family for taking Ben into their family for all these years, loving him and caring for him. Rest in peace dear Ben until we meet again.

“ My Uncle Bennie was quite possibly, the sweetest man I know. Always there with a quick smile and laugh. He was such a handsome man! I loved when he would come visit and have on his "whites"...he was very dashing and a complete gentleman. When he came home to visit us, he would always take me "shopping"...lol which consisted of letting me roam thru stores to my hearts content, while he had a drink! I am so very glad my children all got to know him like I did. His love for family and friends was constant. Cece and George have just been wonderful! They were family to him, not just friends, and we owe them a debt that cannot be repaid for being there for him over the years. He cherished their friendship as do we. The memories I have of Uncle Bennie are such wonderful ones. As always, I hate that I let life get in the way of getting to see and talk to him more. But I know he knew I loved him. That quick smile and ever present laugh of his is something I will always remember. We love you so much, and you will be missed terribly! Till I see you again, rest easy Uncle Bennie!
