“ I came to know Chih through attending events organized by her. She dedicated much of her life in promoting Buddhism. She is a selfless and compassionate PuSa (Bodhisattva), always working tirelessly for the good and benefits of others.

She will be greatly missed.

May her body rest in peace and mind ascend to a better world (I know she will)!!!

“ Colisa was a strong, family-oriented woman and a wonderful neighbor. Her kind spirit will live on in three strong sons. We have beautiful and lasting memories of our trip with her to the temple for the holy relics tour, which was an awakening for us. Her gentle character also possessed a strong civic responsibility and we had many discussions about political agendas over the years. May her courage and wisdom provide guidance and solace for those blessed to have known her.

“ Chih hui was my long time Buddhist friend. Although I live in west coast of Florida and did not see her much, I always know her dedications that she put into for the Buddhist summer camp in Orlando. She was one of the backbones and always worked quietly behind the scenes. She was so courageous to pick up such tasks in helping spread dharma besides her busy schedules to raise her family.

Colisa, you were deeply missed and will be in my prayers always!

“ Colisa was an amazing human being, who always put others first. She always wanted to help, and even in her days in the hospital, she was giving advice on natural remedies. Her sons are a reflection of her kindness and caring spirit . Her family was always first, and the well being of her sons was her priority. We miss you!!

“ We never got the chance to meet her but spent enough time with her sons (Albert, Brian, and Eric) to know, without a doubt, that she was and is a wonderful wife and mother with such a beautiful soul. Our hearts and prayers go out to the family and friends who are dealing with the tragic loss. Love you guys.

“ Colisa is my mother-in-law, and an amazing woman. I am so grateful I got to know her so well, and that she welcomed me into her family. She was a beautiful person who was so kind and generous to everyone she met. We miss her dearly, but we know she is finally at peace.

“ My mother was a very caring and kind soul and always put others before herself. She was always the first to wake up and last to go to bed and did whatever it took to take care of our family. We always joked that it scared us when we would randomly catch her snoozing while she drove, but we hope that she can now rest peacefully. I will miss her dearly but she will continue to live on through the life values that she has instilled in me.

I love you mom and know that you are in a much better place now.

“ Chih was my first Buddhist teacher and I will always be grateful for her wisdom and kindness. Sometimes she showed me things directly, but always she taught me by example. Although I will miss her presence, she will always be a part of who I have become.

Much love and gratitude,
