“ Evening Everyone,

I am Sophia the Mother of Averie & Caiden. I wanted to say a few words. Christian was fun, kind, and spirited. When I met him 20 years ago it was one of the happiest times for me. He knew how to love deeply to the point he left his internship in California because he could not be away from me all summer. The following year he was my inspiration for my college essay on the most influential person in my life. He comforted and supported my decision to return to college. Which in turn we have 2 amazing boys! One of the BEST gifts he ever could give me! Even after our relationship dissolved he was a very loving father and co-parent! We always leaned on each other and worked well as a team to raise such amazing children! Thanks, Chris for showing our children how a man can love his children greatly. I will miss co-parenting with you the MOST! Rest well, you will be missed!

“ We will like to offer our sincere condolences to the family. This is from Darrell Lillard's family. Christian was Darrell's Behavioral therapist and friend for over 10 years of his life. He's torn by this, but understands that God needed him more than we did on earth. Please know that we are here if you need us. We will continue to pray that God provides the strength that each of you will need at this time. 🙏🙏🙏💙💙.

Christian was so kind and was always there for my son. We will miss you!!
