“ Hello Rafaela & Family, i'm so very sorry to hear of Christie's passing, i know she has been struggling for the past several months. words cannot express how sad i am for you and your family right now, with the passing of your dad a few weeks ago and now Christie's passing. i will pray long and hard for comfort and the strength to get through the days and months ahead, i know all to well what its like to lose a loved one and only time will help heal those wounds! love you Raf, take care my dear friend!!!

“ My Tata was a devoted Christian women. Who was a mother to her 3 nieces Rosa Lilly, Natalie James, Christie Gonzalez, and her nephew Juan Gonzalez. To us she was not our aunt she was our mother. Our children became her grandchildren all 15 of them. She took care of us provide for us loved us. She went to school field trips and always found time to bake cupcakes for school bakes sales teacher conference. She made sure we knew our lord and savior. She took us to CCD classes on Saturday and church on Sunday. Doctors appointments, dentist, and optimtriest. She prayed for us. She worried about us. She was our mother. She never married she took care of not just us but also her mother and father. She was truly a humble servant of the lord. She would clean homes as well as office buildings. Tata even delivered newspapers to make sure we were taken care of. She put others before herself and nobody in front of the lord. The scripture that best describes how she lived would be Philippines 2:3. "Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in loneliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself". That was her, truly a humble servant of the lord. As the oldest of five she took care of her siblings. She was a giver a nurturer. Any problem you had her response was the same pray for it. God dosnt give you more than you can handle. Heaven must be rejoicing to have their angel back amongst them.
