“ To know christina and the family it was and is a blessing. Ive known her since highschool. Class of 2002. She was so sweet and careing of others. My memories of her are cherished. We had sleep overs and karaoke nights and times we went to the skateing rink and she will make jokes on how bad people skated. Ive once went to church with her. And it was during a hard time in my life. She said ..god will help you get threw this time of need. She was right, ive since been going to a different church. Christina was one of my best friends and to meet the family it was a honor. My heart goes out to nicole , albert , mom, and her whole family. Ill keep you all in my prayers . Big hugs . God bless you all. And christina god bless you too. Ill see you in heaven sweety. R.I.P.
