

Christopher Phillip Gill

August 23, 1966 - August 19, 2022

Our family sadly lost a piece of our hearts on Friday, August 19, 2022, when Christopher Phillip Gill passed away at 55. Chris was a fiercely devoted father. He leaves behind his daughter, Taylor Gill, of whom he was extremely proud; his mother Josephine Gill, sisters and brothers-in-law Allison and Gary Pierre and Gillian and Sherwin Williams and their children; brother Marlon Gill and his children; and his fiancé, Mary Della Malva.

Chris' early life was spent in Trinidad where he grew up playing the cuatro in his father's bands. By his late teens, he was well known in Trinidad as a musician in his own right, gigging across the island on a weekly basis. Upon his arrival to the US, he began his career as a freelance Audio Engineer. His love of music continued throughout his life.

Chris was loved, is missed, and will always be cherished.

We are deeply grateful for the outpouring of love and support we have received.

The service/memorial will be held on Monday, August 29 from 1 PM to 4 PM.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the American Cancer Society.

“ We first met at Holy Cross College, our High School in Arima. We both were musicians and we developed a strong bond that lasted several years. We played Parang together. He was a fantastic human being, and a true friend. Heart-breaking that he is gone. May he rest in eternal peace. Rest easy brother.

“ Dearest Chris,

I struggle to think of words that will do justice to your short but fabulous life here on this Earth. The brightest memory that comes to mind is your handsome smile and kind heart. I remember spending time with you, Auntie, and the family on many a summer visit to Trinidad. I remember the joy of your music and your immense talent as an artist. As you greet the many members of our family who have earned their angel wings, please know that we will walk in gratitude for all the joy your brought to others thru your music. During my visit to Florida a few years back, the sheer pride and love on your face as you introduced me to your beautiful daughter Taylor still makes me smile. I am beyond sad that I did not get one more chance to see your smile in person. I pray for peace and grace to surround you and your family/loved ones during this most devastating time.

You are our newest angel....

*Eternal love and hugs,
Lesley, Roxanne, Duane, and Carlene (Cousins)*

“ May God rest his eternal soul.

When I was younger, I spent the summer at Chris's home. His talent as a musician and his sweet demeanor has always encouraged me. In high school, a classmate of mine who came from Holy Cross College gushed about Chris's prowess on every string instrument. It meant a lot to me that Chris's former schoolmate significantly regarded him. It pains me greatly that I didn't get to see Chris before his untimely passing.

*In the name of Jesus Christ, I pray for the comfort of his loved ones.

“ My brother Chris and I were inseparable growing up, as we were just one year apart. Our Father now deceased, God rest his soul, used to call us, “Bim and Bam.” My Father used to say, “Who dem? Whenever yuh see one, yuh see the other one right dey.”

Chris and I were intrinsically separated when we went to different secondary schools. We developed different schedules and moved in different circles obviously.

I engaged his musical skills and talents often enough though, as he assisted my school parang band one year. He played the guitar, arranged the music, kept time when we were practising and quite happily appeared on stage with us for the Christmas school concert that year.

Blink and Chris opted to migrate to the USA with the rest of our immediate family. I wanted to stay in Trinidad. Blink again and we were both married with full lives, complete with children and the careers of our choice. The rest is history.

Gone but not forgotten, forever alive in our hearts. We love you, Chris.

Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord.

And let perpetual light shine upon him.

May he rest in peace, Amen.

May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace, Amen.

Your sister Gillian, Trinidad

“ I remembered when Christopher and his mom, dad and siblings used to visit my mom and dad when we were children. I enjoyed those visits from his family. My cousin Chris and I would often spend time talking and playing around. He was a wonderful cousin, a good friend, a kind person, musically talented like his dad. Christopher will be missed. I pray that God welcome's him with open arms into heaven. May Christopher be blessed with eternal life, love and peace with the heavenly father. This I pray in Jesus name AMEN.
