“ My sincere sympathy and condolence for the loss of your family member. I agree that losing a dear friend or relative is one of the hardest things to deal with no matter how long it as been since losing them. I lost my son almost 8 years ago and it seems like yesterday, The pain is still fresh.

"God for us is a refuge and strength. A help that is readily found in times of distress." - Psalm 46:1

This Bible verse is very comforting knowing that the family can turn to him in their times of sorrow.

“ Chris was always willing to help his neighbors with whatever you needed and he always asked to see that you were doing ok.

You could tell it was from a good heart and you just don't see that much anymore. A good man taken far too early in this life and you will be missed.

Ight, Chris. Peace and God Bless You,

Lizz, my condolences to you and all of the family. The moment was brief, but I did get to meet him when I drove out to east side with my cousin Claude Davis. Chris had a very pleasant spirit and friendly demeanor. He had treated us to some Publix chicken after a long wait at doctor's appointment. I thought that was very kind of him. Be strong sweetie, I know it's hard for you at this time of sorrow.
