“ Christopher Tague was a friend and battle buddy. We were in 1st platoon together 31st chem. He was sarcastic and just a goof. Its hard to write all the memories we had because for a good chunk of our lives in the military we were always together with our other battles having a good time cracking jokes. Sadly before my husband and I left Texas, we lost touch with him. I just want him to know that we always cared and loved him dearly. Chris you will be forever missed and remembered, I can not believe that your gone. Watch over us buddy and sincere condolences to his family.
