“ Don and I were Mid High Youth Leaders at UMCPB so we had many trips with Claire. The one that is foremost in my memory was a trip to Fort Wilderness. We had such fun as Claire and Lizzie Pignato put makeup and pigtails on Don and me! We were all overcome with laughter. That night we had a very serious campfire service where Claire gave her life to Christ. We felt great comfort in knowing that Claire was always protected by our loving God.

*We are out of town and unable to attend her service but our prayers are with all of you. Our hearts are broken for those left behind but we rejoice in knowing that Claire is with Jesus. We love you guys!!

“ I was so saddened to hear of Claire’s untimely passing. Although I haven’t seen her in many years, I still can recall all the times we saw her playing with her good friend Michelle Kelley while we sat in the stands watching our sons playing flag football. She was an adorable little girl and always smiling. She will be missed by everyone who knew and loved her. My sincere condolences to her family and friends Bob and I are sorry we won’t be able to attend the service as we will be out of the country but our thoughts will be with her family.

“ I believe that imagination is stronger than knowledge. That myth is more potent than history. That dreams are more powerful than facts. That hope always triumphs over experience. That laughter is the only cure for grief, and I believe that those we love don't go away, Claire and Charlotte walk beside us every day, unseen, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed, and very dear. Thank you for the share moments that we had, for accepting us as your family, and for the lives that you have patiently manage to change for the better. Although Claire might not know the names of the people she has help, they do remember hers as an example of when there is a will, the most difficult becomes possible. Claire and Charlotte you will always be in our hearts and beautiful memories.

“ Claire, you were a joy to our family and a fun companion as a growing child. I'll treasure my memories I had with you and regret the time passed when we were not able to be together. You were extraordinarily beautiful and loving. Fly high with the other angels and let all our relatives know how much they were loved and missed. I know Grandma Lu is holding you both close.. Until we meet again...❤️

“ Claire was a very special person. She was loving, kind, smart, beautiful, strong willed, and full of joy. She lit the room up with her smile and energy. I'll never forget the first day I met her when she said "Hi, my name is Claire" and I replied "ME TOO!" We both thought it was so awesome to meet someone who liked the same things, but also shared the same name! We were at SCL together in the same family, there we shared tears and laughter. You always had a strong voice and never backed down. I admired your willingness to become vulnerable and ability to pick yourself back up. Your heart was so BIG! You were always willing to help someone out no matter what it took. I'll never forget the special moment you let me share with you as I held your leg during the delivery of your first child. It was truly an inspiration and a moment I'll never forget! Overtime we lost connection and my heart breaks that'll I'll never have the opportunity to hear your voice, hug you, or to let you know everything will be okay. May you and baby Charolette fly high with the angels. "Love you like a sister" xo My deepest condolences to her loving parents Linda and Bill, her brother Ben as well as the rest of her family.

I loved Claire. As Elizabeth said, she was uncommonly beautiful and spirited. I, too, find it incredulous that I will never hug her or laugh with her again.

“ You were more than just taters mom, you were my friend. Your smile was contagious, your laugh was vivacious. You struggled, but you were doing so good, and I was so proud of you. I'll never forget the time we snuck a 6 pack of corona at mom's condo..... Warm corona was so nasty lol. I'm gonna miss you so much. I'll be sure to share all of my wonderful memories with tae as she grows. I love you fly high!
