An Epitaph for me.

...and the great white gulls fly o'er my grave.

And the dirge is the sound of restless wave

And my soul at last is at rest in Thee

and my body is one with the endless sea.

Weep not! I go forth in Joy.

“ My name is Cayden, the grandson of Claire. A memory I will share is whenever I went to their house, they let me play with a toy gas station. It ws really fun. I was really sad when she died.

“ Although I have been estranged from my parents for years, I will still grieve the loss of my mother and the good memories that I have. The obituary did not mention my brother Robin Joseph Zinicola, age 11, who predeceased my mother, twin to Damien Zinicola.
