

Clara Luz Bruno

December 1, 1941 - September 28, 2015

"Clara Luz Bruno, aged 73, died peacefully on September 28, 2015 at Hospice of the Comforter in Altamonte Springs, FL after suffering several strokes. Clara was born December 1, 1941, in Santurce, Puerto Rico, the daughter of Pedro Bruno and Aurora Lanzo Soto. Clara moved to Brooklyn, New York from Puerto Rico, where she worked full-time while raising her six children. Never shy or short of a witty remark, she always kept it light and made everyone laugh. She loved to dance and party with her friends and family. Amongst her many achievements in life, she took the greatest pride in organizing special Latin music events on the weekends. Her stories of those happy times will continue to be told through the generations.

Clara's legacy will live on through her children, Susie, Luis, Jackie and Zaul, her grandchildren, and her great-grandchildren. Her memory will also carry on through her numerous loving relatives and friends. Now reunited with her brother Pedro Juan, her daughters Maggie and Neca, as well as her brothers-in-law Mingo and Chiro, she will be dancing salsa and celebrating for eternity.

Clara asked that no one be sad, no one cry, just rejoice in the happiness of memory."

Tribute Wall

JA

“ Estimada familia Bruno siento mucho lo que estan pasando se que es un momento doloroso y me guataria compatir con ustedes unas palabras de aliento se encuentra en ( Juan 5:28,29) donde Dios nos promete que las personas que han muerto volveran a la vida. Espero que este texto le sirva de consuelo. Acompañadoles en su dolor.

Jascarina

---

jascarina - October 01, 2015 at 08:14 AM