

Corey Lamar Lamb

November 5, 1977 - June 6, 2022

Corey Lamar Lamb was born on November 05, 1977 in Orlando, FL to Thomas L. and Barbara A. Lamb. Corey is a graduate of Boone High School class of 1995. He matriculated to Southern University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana where he earned a Bachelor's Degree in Mass Communications. Corey went on to receive a Master's Degree in Information Technology from Robert Morris University in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

Corey was a creative entrepreneur who always looked for ways to enhance the community. Corey owned a yogurt shop: "Oopsy Scoopsy", located downtown in the City Beautiful facing the Amway Center. His major venture included an eco-friendly transportation service: "OCartz". Corey also launched a successful watersports company: "Turkquoise Adventures and Jet Skiz", located in Turks & Caicos.

Corey was an avid golfer, reader and traveler. He enjoyed golfing in various locations around the world. He once golfed with Steve Harvey in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico (and he beat him)! Corey was a worldwide traveler and met a cousin in China, who played for the Harlem Globetrotters, who he'd never met. Corey enjoyed life to the fullest and made life enjoyable for others.

Corey is survived by his parents. Sons, Braxton and Christian, and their mother, Crystal Garcia. A brother, Gandre Bynum. Aunts, Mary Lamb and Cheryl (Robert) Smith; and an uncle, Larry Brinson. He also leaves other relatives and devoted friends to cherish his/their memories.

“ It’s coming up on a year since I’ve seen you my Corey. I miss talking to my friend every week. I miss the many shared belly laughs over the years. I miss confiding my life to you. I miss hearing your Corey-isms that always made me smile. I miss not hearing your voice. You knew me. I miss hearing your stories. I will never have another friend like you. I will love you forever. We had so much fun over the decade

“ I was blessed to meet Corey a few years back on an amazing vacation in Turks and Caicos! We had some great times there and built a friendship through Kimberly Perry. I am so grateful she FaceTimed me a few weeks ago and I got to see his big ole smile and laugh as we always do. I will truly miss Corey, but thank God for letting me encounter such a loving and trustworthy friend. Rest easy Corey, we can never forget about you and that smile. My condolences to his family.

“ I met Corey around 2004, 2005 through a mutual friend. I played flag foot ball on his team for a few years which was a lot of fun. In 2007, Corey, myself and another friend went to Cusco, Peru and visited Machu Picchu. What a trip of a lifetime, we had a blast. I'm devastated to hear the news about my friend. Corey, you will be missed!
