

Corliss Tutt

October 22, 1969 - February 9, 2021

Corliss Tutt was called home to Glory on Tuesday, February 9th, 2021.

Corliss was born in Muscogee County, Columbus Georgia on October 22, 1969 to Joseph and Willie Mae Tutt.

Corliss had a gentle soul and lived most of his life in Orlando Florida. The eldest of twins (The Corliss and Cordell pair), He was truly His father's son; he was a loving man with a heart of gold that would go to great lengths to show how much he cared. He will be remembered by his willingness to offer advice to family and friends, or for being handy, fixing things. Corliss thought that he could fix anything and never quit trying to do so; he had a very curious mind about everything. Those that knew him well, will miss his easy going personality, his laughter, and amazing love for cooking. He was known for being an excellent chef who could make a gourmet meal from just about anything.

Corliss is preceded in death by his parents; his Mother, Willie Mae Castille, and his fathers; Joseph Tutt and Forrest Castille. He will be missed by his brothers and sisters; His twin, Cordell Tutt, Joseph E Tutt Jr., Angela Reynolds (Wilbur), Somalia Santos (Ambrose), and Neal Castille (Tiffany). He leaves a strong legacy of love to his Daughter, Tashè Bryant (Chris) and a host of nieces, nephews and many others whose lives he touched.

“ My brother had a gentle and kind soul, he was stubborn at times, and made many mistakes; I challenge the person who has not.... this gentle giant with a sweet heart would go to great lengths to show he cared. He was the eldest of twins: the Corliss and Cordell pair that were always getting in my stuff ( in my six year old voice). Corliss was truly his father's son. He was like our dad in so many ways... Corliss had a curious mind. When we were younger, he'd disassemble things just to see what made them tick. Imagine going to your room and your littler brother has COMPLETELY discombobulated your favorite remote control car.... the car and the REMOTE..... yeah.

He became a loving man and remained a great brother. Rest well Bro! I will love you forever.

Your big Bro Joe (Edward)

*To the Tutt family with loving thoughts. Only God can heal our broken hearts. We all were members of King'sway Baptist Church and saw your brothers and sisters grow. Your parents were dedicated servants. Keeping the family in prayer for strength.
