

Cynthia Leigh "Cindi" Peecher

January 21, 1961 - December 17, 2017

Cindi Peecher is mother to two fantastic children, Mark William (20) and Cynthia Ann (16) and for more than 28 years, spouse to Mark Bagozzi. Born and raised in the Detroit/Dearborn, MI area, Cindi graduated from Edsel Ford High School with honors and received her BA from the University of Michigan.

Cindi is smart, beautiful, inquisitive, hardworking, dedicated, fantastic mother and joy to be around. She started work at age 13 and eventually started Peecher's Pizza Shoppe in Dearborn, MI with her father and brothers. Her grandmother worked at the restaurant and she enjoyed not only cooking but laughing the days away with Grandma Bruce. They successfully ran the business for over 10 years.

Mark and Cindi met in Detroit, MI, where they dated for several years and in 1989 married. Both moved to Florida soon after. Cindi loved the Florida sunshine (vitamin D), the green terrain and blue sky.

Once in Florida, Cindi started work with a placement company. She had various jobs during this time until she was assigned as receptionist at Nickelodeon Studios Florida. She worked her way up to Director of Human Resources. This was a very fulfilling career for Cindi. While at Nickelodeon, Cindi obtained an MBA from Rollins College.

Real estate investment became Cindi's passion once children arrived. She bought, remodeled, sold and managed several properties over the last 17 years. She enjoyed finding a fixer upper.

When Cindi's father passed away due to lung cancer, she set out to find how her family can improve their chances of cancer prevention, therefore, lessening the chance of treating the disease later. She poured through all the papers, books, videos, websites, etc... and was on a constant quest for knowledge. She determined that exercise, clean/organic diet, bottled (Evian of course) or filtered water, along with minerals and vitamins are the right path to a healthy life. So, she set her family out on this path a little over 7 years ago. She has taught them well and they will continue to live as she taught.

In 2014, Cindi and Mark celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary by renewing their vows at St. Giorgio Church in Castel Condino, Italy. Generations of Mark's relatives were married in this church. This was a wonderful time as her with her children, family and close friends there to celebrate.

This disease came on fast for Cindi in October 2017. What started as a cough turned out to be stage IV lung cancer. She never smoked and took great care of herself. She fought very hard to get better and tried to comply with all doctor demands. She did it all so she could spend more time with her kids who she loved more than anything. Unfortunately, the disease caught up with her and she will be missed but never forgotten.

One never knows when it is their time so please hug your loved ones often and tell them how much you love them.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions to GoFundMe Peecher/Bagozzi Family fund <https://www.gofundme.com/markbagozzi> for medical expenses and children's college. A celebration of Cindi's life is being planned in Michigan later next year for family and friend that cannot attend the service.

“ My sister in law Cindi will be missed so much. She is loved by our family, myself, Greg, Anna, Christen, Chris and Suriaya. I can still hear her wonderful infectious laugh. She taught me so much about so many things, it amazed me the amount of information she knew. When my brother became ill, I would call her Dr. Peecher, sometimes she knew more than the Doctors! She is smart, witty and full of love for life and her family. We will keep Cindi's memory alive and continue her passion for healthy living and love of life and family. I love you Cindi. We love you Cindi. Forever in our hearts.

“ To My Beautiful Sister Life is so fleeting I still can't believe how fast it can be gone. . .
How does 50 years fly by?
I will miss you, and our conversations
I'm glad I got to see you, I'm glad I got to say goodbye
I am grateful to have had you as my sister
My heart broke watching you struggle
I'm inspired by your fortitude in the face of your worst fears, and humbled by your grit.
I wish I could be there to help you on your journey, I'm so sorry that I can't be.
I wanted you to know that I love you and that I have always loved you as a person and as my sister.
I know I wasn't the easiest kid to be around and I wanted to thank you for your understanding, your love, for taking me to my first concert at the state fair 😊 (Styx - August 31, 1979 I still remember the night – and my love of music began that day.)
I want you to know I never did the paper route for the money... I did it because I couldn't stand the thought of you out there by yourself at 4 in the morning.
Oh! and thanks for teaching me to drive!
As a family we aren't very good at expressing ourselves to each other, it's been 50 years and we still suck at it. If this is the last time I get to tell you what's in my heart I'm not going leave anything unsaid
I feel your fear – I felt you giving up....it broke my heart...
The night I came to see you at 3 a.m. I had a dream that you were leaving... Twice - the second time it happened I got up, got dressed and went to your hospital room – I believe God sent me to your room to pray for you that night.
I know the journey ahead is going to be rough, I also know your name is in the book of life and you are going to heaven. I hope a can earn enough chips to get there myself and see you, dad, grandma's and grandpa's Bruce and Peecher and the rest of my friends.
If I don't make it, please look down on me with love in your heart.

*If it gets too tough and you need to let go I understand And it's okay.
Love you always and always and always
Your Brother Rob*

“ I am really speechless at this time. Cindi was a beautiful person and we had the joy for many years for her to be part of our family. We did not spend a lot of time together given the distance, but when we saw each other the embrace was like yesterday. She brought much happiness to my cousin Mark and his wonderful children. My prayers are with them now and forever. She will never be forgotten and will live in our hearts for eternity. We love and cherish you Cindi. God Bless.

“ Cindi had me at "hello." We met in 1996 when she hired me at Nickelodeon. It was for a position in her very own department, and over the years, I ended up reporting to her directly. We became fast friends from day one, and remained friends well past our time at Nickelodeon. We have been in each others' lives for twenty one years. You know someone is a true friend when you have chosen different paths, made different decisions, have different opinions and outlooks on things, yet somehow, it never affects the friendship. That is protected over and above all else. That is the way we always looked at our friendship. We could talk about ANYTHING, and did....every time we were together!!!! I have had some of the best and hardest laughs in my life with Cindi. We have also cried together too. Just last week, I reminded her of something I have always told her....that she is and will always be one of my all time favorite people in life. She said, "You are too, and you will stay in that spot, even on the other side."

Until we meet again, my friend.

“ Oh how my mind wanders back through the years when I think of Cindi. You see, I am second cousin to Cindi and remember her as a little tot. Though distance separated us all through life we still held something special in our hearts. We had a bond that didn't fade with the years. It is called love. I felt so privileged to visit with her in the hospital and talk about old times at Licksillet. Her mind was sharp and she remembered things I had forgotten. We had a great time of visitation. I recently became acquainted with a song that I wanted so much to sing for her. Karen and I recently sang it at church and had a cd made. My intentions were to get it to Cindi and Mark for their listening. The Sunday I contacted Mark about sending it to them I learned that Cindi had been invited to Christmas in Heaven". It is entitled "I Am Home". So appropriate for this occasion.

The words: 1. Can you imagine a place of beauty where the streets are purest gold, where the walls are made of jasper and a crystal river flows? A place where mansions line the streets and night will never come, I can't wait, til I can say, "I Am Home". chorus: I am home, I am home, I can see King Jesus on His Throne. There's my family and my loved ones who have gone on before, I Am Home, I Am Home. 2. There'll be no sin there in that place for all of man is saved by grace, and no earthquakes or famines will there be found; there'll be no pain nor sorrow there for that's my home beyond compare, I can't wait til I can say, "I Am Home".

During my visit with Cindi she assured me that she was trusting in Jesus as her personal Savior and was ready to meet God. I trust the angels sang it to her on her journey Home.

May God's comforting presence be with each of you during this time of sorrow. It is over for Cindi. Forever she will be in the place Jesus prepared for her, a place called Home.

“ One day in 1987, Cindi used salt instead of sugar in the sugar cookies at Peecher's Pizza. The mistake wasn't discovered until customers began to eat them—and promptly spit them back out again. I remember Cindi apologizing but then laughing the hardest of anyone. As a 15 year old employee, I was amazed at how this professional, beautiful woman handled what would have embarrassed me to the point of running and hiding. She handled it the way I will always remember her: with, grace, humor, and confidence.
