“ I never actually got to meet you Daniel, but I love and adore your beautiful loving wife. I remember Wendy showing me a picture of you and Ellise while sitting at the boardroom table at work, she was so proud of you and she radiated with love for you and your little family. I was just looking at your family photos on facebook before this all happened and thought to myself, "what a beautiful family." You can tell by your smile that you were just a big teddybear and a man with a big heart. From reading all of these sentiments about you, it is clear that you touched a lot of lives and made a huge impact on a lot of people. I know you loved your family very much and your presence here will be greatly missed. You will all be together again one day.

“ Oh Daniel...Your big smile and huge heart will be deeply missed. You were the best of the best and exuded excellence ALWAYS. You cared so much and I cherish our youthful days working together. I often reflect on that time and just how much the two of you mean to me. Thank you for sweeping Wendy off her feet and showing her the truest of love. You slipped away far too soon but your life was beautiful and I am better for having known you.

“ This is how I will always remember Daniel. Dancing , smiling and laughing. He shaped me into the hard working person that I am today. He was always there as a manager when needed. I worked alongside him in 2 different companies and his fun happy personality never wavered. This tragedy saddens me so much. I pray and worry every day for his family because I knew they meant everything to him in the 4 years I worked with him and got to know him. Biggest condolences to the Everett family. His memory with always be with me.

“ Daniel Everett you touched so many lives and brought joy & love into many more without even knowing it. We saw how much you loved and adored your little family. Your smile was as wide as you were tall and just as infectious. I knew you more through Wendy always bragging and telling stories of the fun and loving times. May your smile light up heaven for all to see. We got your girls backs down here. You will be missed. Until we all see you again may you Rest In Peace.

“ We will always remember your big smile and your funny stories. We just recently saw all three of you. Your daughter with the same smile. You adored Ellise and were the best father and husband. Wendy making lasagna that night. I wish it was that day again. You were a kind and gentle man. I was so touched with your wonderful spirit with the mentally and physically impaired. Your willingness to give your size 14 sneakers to those in need. Please look down on Wendy and Ellise. Keep them safe. They will make you so proud. The story is not over, your child is here with Wendy.
