

Daniel J McGrath

June 28, 1950 - January 5, 2015

Daniel John McGrath passed away on January 5, 2015. Born on June 28, 1950 to the late John and Nancy McGrath in Brooklyn, New York. Dan served time in the Navy and also worked for IBM and Diebold. He is survived by his wife Karalee and 5 brothers, Bob, Ed, Tom, John, Joe and his sister Anne.

Dan enjoyed the beauty of the outdoors and the ocean. He loved taking cruises and fishing and just being at home swimming and gardening. He kept in constant touch with his family and always tried to keep the family united. He had the best sense of humor and a heart of gold that will be sorely missed.

Rest in peace my love.

“ Danny was my brother, not by blood, but by a special bond. I was 13 when he came into my life and he was a joy to have know all the years that I shared with him. What a gift to have know him. He could take a simple day and turn it into a true adventure, always fun. I have so many memories about him, where would I begin Woodstock, boat trips, family events, a walk in the woods, or just a simple day. What a great man and one of the best people this green earth has know. He will be missed by all who have known him. So so sad that you are gone Danny, I would have liked to see you one more time as we had planned. I will see you at the zoo.

“ I met Danny when I was 18 at the Pergament Paint Store. He drove me home to my parent's house in his '57 black and white Chevy. Almost immediately he became part of our family. He had a bright twinkle in his eye that lit up his whole face and mine too. As long as he was with me there was nothing wrong in the whole world and all things were possible. He was my rock. My first true love. The best boyfriend a girl could have. We were married for 20 years. Danny McGrath was a truly wonderful man. I will always love him.

What can we say about a man who has given us so many great memories! Danny you were truly a blessing to have as a best friend and will "always" have a special place in our hearts. ❤️ You always had a funny story to tell and a smile on your face. The most down to earth and easy going guy. We will miss talking to you every Sunday. How fast the last 50 years have gone by. Thank you for some really great times. I could write a 1,000 page book about all the things we did together over the years and we are really really going to miss you. 💔 We pray that you are at peace now and hope you know how much we loved you. 🌹🌹🌹

“ I worked with Dan for a relatively short period of time but the one quality that i will always remember is his ability to make people laugh. in this crazy world during uncertain times, its good to have people like dan around to make us laugh if for a brief moment to ease the worries and stress of life. My memories of Danny center around family gatherings. Despite not seeing him for close to 40 years I'm left with a vivid memory of a personable, fun loving man who wasn't above an occasional cannonball off of our diving board. One who enjoyed sharing a beer by the pool and often spoke of his love of the ocean. Danny livened up a party, and just being around him made us feel better about ourselves.

I worked with Dan for 6 years, 95 to 01...a great man...loved his stories, his sense of humor, and his smile, never was there a gentler, kinder man...not once have I seen a Diebold truck go by without thinking of you...and always will...

Of all the houses, in all the neighborhoods, in all the towns, in all the world, how fortunate to move next door to you and Karalee! Dan, your generosity and kindness, pithy quips, ever-present humor and sage homeowner advice made you one of the brightest lights in my suburban sky. Godspeed, my friend.

The last time I saw Danny was at Kristen McGrath's wedding. I enjoyed our discussions and he was, as usual, a cheerful, positive person of good will. It's sad that he died too soon, but I think his friends and family can take some comfort in the fact that he enjoyed the life he had.
