“ so many memories of David, he was a friend a father and always had something funny to say... very caring always willing to listen... when I had nowhere to lay my head he gave me his living room for a few months, when I had my own place and I had nothing to eat he brought me food.. when I told him I wanted to give up, and I was tired I'm struggling he always told me it'll get better don't forget I'm here for you call me whenever you need me.... he always had something to say about whatever situation you were going through, I will definitely miss him he always called me hijo.... I had the opportunity to sit with him in the hospital numerous times, on February I was there with his brother helping him go to the bathroom walking him to the bed, it hurt me so bad, because I had just lost my father a few months back... but at least I spend a few hours with him.... I always remember him telling me that he still had payments on that old beat-up Toyota that he had.... every time I would say something in regards to that car he said watch it I have three more payments left on that car... Lol!!! I will miss you bro...

“ David was like a brother to me, he was always in my house on Taylor and if you needed a favor or a ride somewhere he never said no. He is an extremely prideful person and as much as I tried to see him before he passed he would decline So No one would see him under this condition. He will be missed but always hold a spot in my heart. RIP Dave love dies...you never quite get over it. You just slowly learn how to go on without them. But always keeping them tucked away safely in your heart.

“ He knew how much I wanted to be like Janet Jackson and when he called me Janet everytime he saw me my eyes would always light up. I really appreciated that he did that. When he did see me he would say. "What's up Janet, you know you look like Janet Jackson right!". David was a sweet cool man who always smiled, laughed and joked. May he rest in peace. Love, ❤️ Janet...

R.I.P. compay David, you have moved on to a painless after life in the Lord's Kingdom up in heaven, until we meet again...

David was my friend, brother and family all together as we grew up in Beekman Ave. & 141st St. in Bronx New York. David, Carlito & Louie and I were like family. I used to go over to their house and they to mine. Their family and mine, were always together, and shared lots of memories. Sleep in peace my brother... Love, Jose Rivera (Papito) & family... 🙏🙏🙏

“ My Taylor Dad💔💔 I'm at a lost for words😞

Growing up you were the neighborhood dad from packing your car up with kids and taking us all to the pool to yelling and offering slaps when you caught us acting a fool. You were a huge part of my upbringing and never held your tongue you called me out on my bs without hesitation and my respect level for you was higher than what I have for my birth parents. I can go on for days on all the positive talks, the great times and the amazing memories you left behind💙 if my heart is heavy right now I can only imagine and pray for your daughter you loved dearly, the grandchildren you adored and the siblings you nurtured and cared for so dearly💔💔 my deepest condolences to all this was a great loss💔💔💔

“ I'm so grateful that you got to meet my children and give jayla a great relationship between y'all. We love you so much and we will miss you! I'm also so grateful you kept your promise and made it to New York for the birth of Nayla. I will never forget you and I will always keep you in memory for the kids. Thanks for being the best papa ever.. we genuinely had a great relationship.. I wouldn't have had it any other way. I'm so sad about your passing and I just wish you didn't have to go through what you went through. Cancer sucks, although you lost your battle.. you're still my hero. I love you so much papa, and i miss you so much already. It doesn't feel real, please watch over me guide me and protect me. Rest In Peace now papa. No more suffering 🙏💙💔

“ I am a direct reflection of everything you have taught me and raised me to be, and I'm proud of that fact. You have instilled values and life lessons in what would seem to be an obvious way, but what I've learned is not obvious to most. You showed me by example and then let me arrive at my own decisions (both good and bad). What I never grasped until later in life —you was always strategic, and by that I mean you was always laying down the foundation for an opportunity to teach me a life lesson. I always felt like you was five paces ahead of me (which, when I was a teenager, wasn't always fun)however, it always was for my benefit. Dad thanks for always being by my side whether holding my hand , having my back and walking me down the aisle . Love you always #firstborn #figueroaforlife sleep in peace Papi! You will be missed
