

Dawn R. Browne

October 12, 1966 - November 13, 2015

Dawn R. Browne, 49, of St. Cloud, FL passed away Friday, November 13, 2015. Dawn was born in Mount Pleasant, Pennsylvania. Dawn is survived by a son, Kenneth R. Housel and his wife Trista. Dawn was also survived by 5 daughters: Crystal Housel and her husband Brian and their 1 son, Mary Housel and her husband John with their 7 children, Stacie Housel and her husband James and their 2 children, Leah Shultz and her 2 children, and Heather Housel and her 1 son. Dawn was survived her sister Denise Emrig. Dawn had 10 grandchildren as well. Dawn R. Browne was also survived by her close friends Michael Jacobs, Randy Boone and Sandy McDonald. Dawn was a huge NASCAR fan, especially of the "The Intimidator" Dale Earnhardt, Sr. and Dale Earnhardt, Jr. She was a big Pittsburgh Steeler fan. Dawn enjoyed working on cars, and did mechanic work as well. Dawn enjoyed the outdoors, such as fishing, hunting, and building a fire and spending time with her family and friends. Dawn had the biggest heart anyone could ever imagine. Dawn took care of a handicapped man for 2 years and showed him the way of true happiness and family. She also was the one who helped him walk again, when the doctors said he never would. Dawn was his backbone to keep him going and guided him to get his children back. Dawn made Michael Jacobs a permanent part of this family. She helped her son and daughter in law to move here as well as her daughter Mary and her son in law. She was an amazing woman in so many ways, and God rest her soul. All her children came together for her and they love her very much.

We will see you again our sweet angel, until then please look over us. We all love you Mom, love all your children and their husbands and wives, brothers, sisters, grandchildren, and your dearest friends. Our angel among us, Dawn R. Browne.

The family is having a very hard time with the loss of their mother and the expenses of the funeral.
