

Debra Kay Freitel

August 8, 1959 - January 6, 2017

Debra Kay Freitel, 57, passed away suddenly on Friday, January 6, while on vacation in Orlando Florida. She was born in Kalamazoo, MI to William French and Miriam Chaney. Debra graduated from Lakewood High School and went on to later receive a Bachelor's degree in Business. She was married to Erhard Freitel on October 13, 1990 and they made their home in Battle Creek MI. Debra loved her church. She served on many committees and held positions such as finance chair, building and grounds chair, women's ministry leader, and Sabbath school teacher. She loved spending time with family, especially grandson, Eli. Debra loved using, learning, and teaching others about essential oils. She loved learning new things and encouraging others to be their best. She invested much love and time into helping others and will be greatly missed. The memorial service will be held on January 29, 2017, 2:00 PM at Urbandale Seventh-day Adventist Church 20440 North Bedford Rd. Battle Creek MI 49037. There will be a dinner to follow, in celebration of her life. If desired, in lieu of flowers, contributions may be designated for Eli's college fund.
