“ All I can say, Mama Didi thank you so much for the love you showed to me just like your own daughter and my family. We are happy to see all of you during our vacation and spend time together; laughing, singing, dancing, and foods were flooding on the table, so much fun that never to forget. Everytime during our visit you and Lilla's family made sure were enjoying our stay and so grateful with that special treatment that I know for sure we are so dear and close to your heart, I can't thank enough for the big heart you shared to your children. In your journey your just gone physically but you stayed in our hearts forever, we'll be missing you and love you most as you stand as my mother and a family here to us. I know God is happy to see you and embrace you with His loving arms in heaven since you're a wonderful person a good mother and such. I am so blessed to have you, your touch is purely like my own mother's touch whom I long and miss, we continue loving you and your family. I was happy for your visit, till we meet again Ma!

“ The 1st time I've meet Mama Didi was in my primary school years thru CYF friend her daughter, Ate Lilla. Going to their house in Noli was like visiting a patch of heaven on earth. Trees, flowers, vegetables, crops, etc. all over the property. Ohh the pond, how can I forget the fish pond. Her house is always clean and tidy. She works really hard having been a full time teacher, mother, farmer and church member. Mama Didi and Papa Ben never let you leave with empty stomach. I bonded with them so well that I'm comfortable calling her mama. Deep inside me I have the Torralba effect , I yearn to retire in a place like they have in Noli. The last time I saw her was in 2000 before I left for the UK. She was just recovering from stroke then. I know that she is now free from pain and discomfort. See you in heaven Mama !
