“ The first time I saw Dick was when I was riding my bike on America Street in Orlando and he came up beside me in his car and wanted to know where Jesse lived. He already knew where he lived because he worked with Jesse roofing but, he just wanted to meet me. He followed me to where Jesse lived. He had the bluest eyes I had ever seen. For me, it was love at first sight! The rest is history. He will be greatly missed and forever in my memories. To Dick's family and friends:

"Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him." 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14

"For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first." 1 Thessalonians 4:16

“ Dick was my cousin but he was more like a brother. Growing up, a lot of the time, we all lived in the same house. His mother Mildred and my mother Irene were sisters and were very close. It hurts me a great deal to lose him and I know it is ever harder for Yvonne, his wife, his children, Richard and Yvette, and all the grand kids. After we grew into adults , I didn't get to see him very often because we lived a long distance apart. but I loved him dearly. RIP Dick, until we are together again. With all my love, Penny
