

Delia Esther Lucret

November 15, 1944 - January 29, 2021

Delia Esther Lucret, of Orlando Florida, passed away January 29, 2021, at the age of 76. Delia was born and raised in Isabela, Puerto Rico to Antonio and Gloria Lopez Perez. Along with her four siblings, she spent her childhood helping with farming.

After moving to Brooklyn, New York, she met her husband Ramon Lucret and married on October 24, 1970. Delia is survived by her husband Ramon Lucret, and daughters Jeanette Esther Lucret and Doris Delia Lucret. She is also survived by her seven grandchildren: Jasmine, JayJay, Brianna, Jacelyn, Malinna, Jonathan and Jayden.

Delia retired in 2011 and in 2016 moved to Orlando Florida where she enjoyed cooking for family gatherings and gardening. With her serious character, however, she was the funniest in her family and very loved by those she made smile and laughed with her.

“ Finding You in Beauty

*The rays of light filtered through
The sentinels of trees this morning.
I sat in the garden and contemplated.
The serenity and beauty
Of my feelings and surroundings
Completely captivated me.
I thought of you.
I discovered you tucked away
In the shadows of the trees.
Then, rediscovered you
In the smiles of the flowers
As the sun penetrated their petals
In the rhythm of the leaves
Falling in the garden
In the freedom of the birds
As they fly searching as you do.
I'm very happy to have found you,
Now you will never leave me
For I will always find you in the beauty of life.*

“ My dearest Delia/Mom con dolor te despido pero con alegría y gozo celebro tu vida. Se que estas en el paraíso de los Angeles con nuestro señor nuestro Dios. Siempre te recordare y te llevare en lo mas profundo de mi corazón hasta que nos volvamos a ver. Toda la victoria es para Dios, el haberte escogido para estar con el en su trono. Nunca podremos comprender estos tiempos de dolor cuando perdemos a un ser querido hasta que conosemos lo hermoso que es servirle a Dios y el se encarga de darnos la paz que necesitamos en estos momento. Solo le doy gracias de haberme permitido conocerte y tener tantos recuerdos hermosos contigo, fuistes mas que una amiga, tus tratos y tus cariños hacia mi fueron los de una madre. Y hacete voy a recordar siempre como una madre. La que me cocinaba y me hacia mi café a cualquier hora del día. Te voy a extrañar inmensamente pero con gozo y alegría te recordare. Te amo madre mia! Descanza en paz.

“ My deepest condolences to my cousins and our family. Delia was a stern and loving aunt. I still recall being a young kid and she trying to keep me, Luis, Albert, and Hector in check. Her lasting impression on me was her love for her husband and children. My uncle, Chilo, was blessed to have had a wife (honey to him) who kept her vows until her last breathe! I know a part of him has died as well. A part of us always dies when we lose loved ones, especially family, the ones who mold us, scold us, and then give us the warmest hugs and smiles. (And food and Christmas gifts and money) While this is a time of sorrow and mourning, I want to celebrate her life. She was a wife, a mother, a grandmother, and a life liver! Her last few years in Florida just seemed to be blissful. I often smiled and felt joy at seeing her with my cuzzo's and all the kids in Florida, where she made her home for the final chapter of her life. I recall her last party in Queens, as she joked that she might come back -- but after a short while in the fun and sun of Florida, she seemed at peace with her decision. Delia, que descansas en paz. Estas alla arriba con la viejita tuya ahorra. Te estamos celebrando pero sabes que tambien duele al saber que no te vemos hamas en el fisico. Pero el espiritu no muere! Sigue el trabajo alla arriba! Te Queremos mucho.

“ Dearest friends, I offer you my deepest condolences. It is often difficult to say the right words to express the feeling of loss. Please know that in my heart, Delia was a beacon of light and love in this sometimes-dark world. She gave me sincere friendship, affection, a listening ear, and guidance. Her love and kindness for others directly reflected on her never-ending smile. I spent a short time in her home, where she welcomed me, a “stranger”, with open arms. During this short time there were several memories that I will forever treasure. Endless conversations about her beautiful back yard and about many do it yourself ideas she shared with me. There is one memory which I want to share because it characterizes her soul... One night, I cooked for her, my mother, and Don Ramon. It was a new recipe, for porkchops, which I have been trying to perfect with little luck. Delia wanted to try it and so she kindly opened her kitchen and taste buds to my cooking. She patiently sat down on her kitchen island counter as I seasoned the porkchops, guiding me towards where the condiments were and continuously asking me if there was anything else that I needed. When the meal was done and it was time to eat, the porkchops were not what I had hoped for. They turned out salty and spicy, but Delia made me feel like my porkchops were the best porkchops she ever tasted, and she made me believe it. That is who Delia was, one of the kindest, sweetest, caring, and honest persons I have ever known. Delia may be gone from this physical work, but this “stranger” will never forget her. My deepest condolences to all of you and may Delia rest in peace.
