

Delores Johnson

June 21, 1940 - March 11, 2025

With hearts full of love and cherished memories, we celebrate the beautiful life of Delores Johnson, a woman of strength and grace. Born and raised in New York City to Leler Bell Johnson and Jimmy Johnson, Delores embraced life with passion and resilience, leaving an indelible mark on everyone who had the privilege of knowing her.

From childhood Delores found joy in dance, beginning as a ballerina before becoming a celebrated member of the African Black Arts Dance Company, where she was known as Yaluwa Oyekunle. Her love for movement and expression reflected the vibrancy of her spirit. Delores dedicated her career to service and care, working as a telephone operator and an AIDS counselor in New York City before moving to Florida in 1995 to care for her beloved mother. Florida became her home, where she formed deep friendships that became family, filling her life with love, laughter, and companionship. Her legacy of kindness, strength, and unwavering love will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. Though she is no longer with us in body, her spirit will continue to dance in the lives she touched.

More than anything, Delores was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She poured her love into her children, Simone, Tevin and Tamisha, as well as Steward and Kevin, who have passed, always guiding them with wisdom and unwavering support. Her son-in-law, Big Nick, held a special place in her heart, as did her eight grandchildren, Danielle (Reginald Jr.), Kevin, Keith, Lil Nick (Leandra), Mercedes, Jasmine, Satashia and Antonio; and eight great- grandchildren, Riley, Keith, Jr., Sterling, Maxwell, Amina, Colsen, Ryan and Emilio, who brought her endless joy. She also leaves behind cousins, John, Freda, Vivian, Barbara, the Askews, and the Bacons, and a circle of cherished friends who became her extended family.

Rest peacefully, Mommy, your love will forever guide us and don't forget to drink your tea...
