

Delores Jean Wallace "Ellerson"

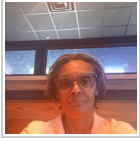

June 2, 1931 - August 16, 2016

Delores Jean Ellerson Wallace was the second oldest of 5 children born to Daniel and Frances Ellerson, Sr. June 2, 1931 in Macon, Georgia. The family moved to Orlando when she was a young girl. Delores was educated in the Orange County Public School system and graduated from Jones High School in 1949. She attended Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church until she relocated to New York, New York in 1957. After receiving a Bachelor of Science in Housing Urban Development Studies from Cornell University, she began a career with the NY City Housing Authority where she was employed until her retirement IN 1992.

Delores was a lifetime member of both the NAACP and National Council of Negro Women and an active participant until her health started to fail her in 2009. Delores was known for her gift of hospitality, where there was room in her heart there was room in her house. She often explored her interest in vogue and fashion design and was a well-dressed woman. She was also an avid reader and a world traveler.

Delores Jean Ellerson Wallace was called to her eternal reward on August 16, 2016. She leaves to cherish her memory daughter, Marcia D. Henson of Groveland, FL; grandson, Anthony W. Henson, of Freeport, NY; sister, Patricia Adams, of Orlando, Fl; three great grandsons, two great great grandsons, four nieces, two nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Marcia Henson lit a candle in memory of Delores Jean Wallace "Ellerson"

Marcia Henson - August 23, 2016 at 06:48 PM

PE

So sorry for your loss Marcia u and family are in my prayers 🙏🙏🙏🙏

pepsi - August 24, 2016 at 07:23 AM

MS

I was sorry to hear of your Mother's passing! My heart felt sympathy to you Ms. Henson, My Brother Anthony and entire Family. Take comfort and rest in God's arms!

Michelle Spann - August 24, 2016 at 07:34 AM

JH

Praying you peace in good memories...

joycelyn Henson - August 24, 2016 at 07:49 AM

MJ

Sending my Condolences and Prayers to the family. May she Sleep in Peace 🙏

Marilyn Johnson - August 24, 2016 at 09:55 AM