“ Uncle Peewee, my memories of you date all the way back to childhood. You were always my LOUDEST uncle. You made your presence known in any room (much like Renuka lol). As I grew up and moved to Orlando, you and Aunty Nanda always made sure I was taken care of. The two of you gave me a second home. As years passed by and I traveled from city to city, you called me kangaroo and always asked where am I hopping to next. I'll forever cherish the memories of visiting with you while you watched your Indian stories (with NO subtitles), arguing with you about locking your door and my favorite memory - fete'ing with you at carnival. I know you're somewhere with your hands up, dancing in someone's fete. Your kangaroo wishes she could hop, skip and jump to you one last time. Thank you for all the years of never treating me anything less than a daughter. I can't thank you and aunty Nanda enough for blessing me with my extended family.

*I love you, infinitely
Your Kangaroo*

“ Our deepest condolences to Nanda, Renuka, Naresh and everyone in the family. Peewee was like a brother and family to all of us. I recall the party times that I and my brother Mike and our other friends spent with Peewee back in the island. Peewee was our protector and our guide as well as entertaining us and making us laugh. Thank you so much, Peewee for those memorable and treasured times! You will always be remembered. Rest in peace our dear friend!
