“ Still hard to believe. Life isn't the same without my sister. I miss your voice, the every day contact. You're in my thoughts every day and missed beyond measure. We started life's journey together, shared almost every circumstance of life, and were supposed to grow old together. But God wanted you back. We will always be there for Jason and we will never forget you. Rest easy until we are together again.

“ I'll always remember Diane as a fun loving person. She loved nature, her cats and dogs. I'll miss her laughter.
