

Diane E. Alas

January 20, 1948 - February 20, 2026

Diane Alas of Orlando, Florida died on February 20, 2026 of kidney failure. She was born in Port Jefferson, New York on January 20, 1948 to Michael and Anne Alas. Diane grew up in Mastic Beach on Long Island. She moved to Texas in August 1968 to study at the University of Texas at Austin. She graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in accounting in 1972, then moved to Orlando.

Diane is survived by her son, Michael Alas, and her granddaughter, Caitlyn (Kit) Alas. Diane was a dedicated single mom and a devoted grandmother. Diane enjoyed traveling, especially with her son. She and Michael visited ten countries and multiple states together. Diane was also an avid collector of Madame Alexander dolls and took her granddaughter to several conventions. Diane's other hobbies included cross-stitching, reading, and going to the movies.

Diane started her career with Valentine & Co. and later transitioned to the finance department of the Osceola County School Board. After retirement, Diane earned a Master of Arts in pastoral studies from Loyola University in 2008. For about ten years, she volunteered as a bereavement minister for St John Vianney Catholic Church.

Diane is preceded in death by her parents, Michael and Anne Alas, and her brother and sister-in-law, Roy and Patricia Alas.

Diane will be most remembered for her love and affection to her son and granddaughter. A funeral mass will be held at St. John Vianney Catholic Church on Friday, March 13 at 11:30 AM.

“ I had the pleasure of sharing a cubicle with Diane for twenty years at the School District of Osceola County. We had many wonderful conversations and I always enjoyed the stories she told. I hope I was able to retain some of the knowledge she gave me. I miss Diane and wish her peace.
