To Steve, I still remember the time when you shared some memories about your Mom and you cried in my shoulder... I can tell how nice mother she is to you and a loving one..

“ Sheila, Leila, Maureen and Steve, I'm just writing to let you know that we are all thinking of you and are so sorry for your loss. Your mom had a terrific sense of humor and a way of making us feel that we could talk to her about almost anything. Her cooking was, of course, legendary, and we always felt that she had all the time in the world to spend with us. She was honest, kind and hard-working, and deeply committed to her family. What a beautiful person. We mourn her passing and will miss her.

“ Ms. Diane,

I Remember Always Getting Her Mail and Getting to See Her Everyday... She Would Open the Door and Say "Hi Honey". Then She Brought Me inside and we would sit on the Couch, Talk, and Watch TV... We Would Share Our Thoughts, I Would Ask Her How She Was Doing and She Would Tell Me What Was Going On... Then, I Would Tell Her About My Day. While the News Was on, We Would Talk About the Stories on It and While Cartoons Were on, We Would Talk About Who Thought of These Shows... Then She Would Get Tired After a While and I Would Go Home, But on the Way Out, She Would Send Me With a Treat...

Ms. Diane is a VERY NICE, AWESOME, and SWEET Person!! She Taught Me to Always Tell the Truth Because That is Exactly What She Did to Me...

That is What I Remember About Ms. Diane.
