“ Throughout my life, you have always been there during good times and bad times. No one can take your place. You have touched my life in ways I can't even begin to describe. I remember when we were kids and how you protected me. I remember the times we spent eating together, chatting and laughing. Thank you for teaching me so much. for loving me the way you did. for always accepting me for me. For loving Brianna and Bobby, the way you did. I am forever grateful to God for gifting me with an amazing sister. I am heartbroken because we had so much to do. We were supposed to get older together. sister, I am missing you so much. I can't stop crying and go on with my life. Is just too hard to bear. Diany, how I wish I could turn back time. I prayed so hard for God to give you another opportunity at life and restore your health, but I guess he had a better plan for you. I will always keep our memories alive. Until we meet again my gorgeous siter! I love you for eternity, Delmy
