

Dillon Anthony Paul

November 2, 2003 - February 17, 2021

November 2, 2003 - February 17, 2021

Our third child, a son born on November 2, 2003, in Queens, New York, with reddish brown hair and a beautiful smile. A smile that got brighter with every moment of the 17 years, 3 months, 14 days, 1 hour and 16 minutes you were allowed to bless this world with your presence, until you departed on February 17, 2021.

The world will miss your phenomenal basketball skills, and your musical talent as the artist D.T.F which you explained meant “Devoted Through Faith”. I could not control the tears when I remember those talks you and I had about your future, as you would quietly and calmly respond, “yes dad I will focus on bringing up the grades” and you did. Your desire to pursue a career in finance and someday owning a luxury car dealership is now secondary, as you have graduated my son from this earthly experience to the highest level of glory to be with God your creator.

Reminiscing on those trips to school from St Joachim and Ann, then to IS/PS 208 middle school, then Teachers HS, and finally Lake Nona HS, with a few weeks at Econ River to recover some credits to graduate on time, you matured and grew. We saw a child growing into a young man. The beard started to show, while the hair grew longer and you decided to color it to coordinate with your shade of brown skin.

We may never understand why you leave the house that day to play basketball, after being at home for two weeks completing quizzes and recording music. We may never understand why you had to depart this earth that day. However, what we do understand is that your God given ability, that desire to always help others, and always see goodness and light in even the darkest of souls in this world, never waver, as you navigate your path back to God your creator to bask in his presence and glory for eternity.

My son, we will continue the work you have started and build upon the foundation you left us. Your passing will never be in vein. Your younger siblings missed their older brother who took them under his wings and share his knowledge of life, academics, basketball, music and so much more. The trips to the pool and basketball court, and being up all night playing video games will never be the same. Your older siblings have no more tears to cry. Everyone at home misses your quiet confidence and silky smooth movement as you navigate your 6 foot 3 inches frame throughout the house.

Your mom and I, along with the rest of the extended family can't begin to understand why you had to leave us so suddenly and so soon. However, we know uncle Zanu and your favorite guidance counselor Mrs. Withfield's daughter, along with our ancestors that returned home before you, have welcomed you into Gods paradise and show you how to use your new angel wings.

The physical body you left behind which you work so hard to develop with great nutrition, discipline and exercise will be treated with the traditional celebration of life service and burial according to our Christian faith. We know without your spirit that body alone is just a shell and not you, my son.

Your mom misses her baby with whom she would enjoy those long calm conversations late at night. She mourns your passing every day since we received that devastating phone call. However, we do thank God every day for granting us the presence of his holy spirit that will grant us peace and the strength to guide us through this very difficult path, as we continue our work on earth and that journey back to our creator.

As your earthly parents, we thank you for granting us the opportunity to mentor, mold and influence you. Thank you for giving us the opportunity to learn from you. Thank you for being a great brother. Thank you for the opportunity to witness the presence of an angel on earth named Dillon Anthony Paul. We will never have another son like you. You were intelligent, ambitious and peaceful and filled with love. You were encouraging, happy, courageous, talented, quiet and very confident, simply the best. Your absence is a great void in this world as we pull the pieces together and move forward. You will always be a major part of our lives forever.

“ am so shocked to learn this sad news. I'll always remember your performance headlining and singing Louis Armstrong's "Hello Dolly," at our Black History Month assembly at Sts. Joachim and Anne. Your eyes smiled that night! You were a shy fourth grader with much kindness; you could never hurt a fly. I'll also always remember your distinctive handwriting and how you wrote your name. Thank you for teaching me about patience. I enjoyed reading everyone's happy memories. May Jesus bless and comfort your family. "Miss A"

“ On behalf of the Andrews and Ramsay family, I extend our Sincere sympathy to Cena, Patrice and the entire family. I've met Dillon only once in His Lifetime and He was very pleasant. Cry with Faith! Weeping endures for a night but Joy cometh in the morning! In days and years to come May the Joy of the Lord be your strength! To us that remain, please continue to live in Love and do not take Any day, any thing or anyone for Granted! Life is indeed too Short! Peace, Love & Grace! God bless! Be safe Everyone! R I P Dillon!

“ 💎💎💔💔💔 Heartbreaking!!! honestly I just still have no words. To know the jewel, precious jewel, you are to dad and mom, bros and lil sis....to all your buddies and family near and far....you, a gem, to all, have been prematurely taken from us. It REALLY breaks my heart. I'm SO sorry especially because I watched Cenia and P nurture you guys and raise you guys amazingly well through the years. NO parent should have to experience this!!!! May God continue to cushion all of our hearts and minds in His all-loving hands as we cope with feeling this pain. This one hit different man! Prayers non-stop for the whole fam most definitely. My love AND ADMIRATION for you guys is never-ending. Out of sight, but never out of mind. All our love, Lori Morgan & Jason Taylor

“ Dillion you messed me up with this one can't believe someone took someone so sweet, so kind hearted, so thoughtful. I remember us always walking around Hollis, me coming to see you play basketball, the summer nights. God earned another angel today and he got lucky with this one, to know there laying you down to rest makes my heart so heavy I love you watch over me 🙏🏻🙏🏻🙏🏻

“ I Miss the Precious Moments with my brother Dillion. We shared the same passions & aspirations to rise as athletes to live our true dreams. I remember growing up with him and his brothers before beautiful gabby was born. All my brothers Ethan, Dillion, Brandon, JR., & Omar. My sister Anita and I Sabrina/Eulalia. We use to play so much in Hollis growing up and go over to each other's Home. I love all my brothers and it hurts to see & know the injustice done to my brother Dillion. I know at 17 it's a tough age and I wish I could have been there for him more. I wish I could have heard his laughter once more, his jokes, his singing & see his huge shining smile. To see him graduate and live out his dreams. It was so beautiful to see him grow all these years. I remember him confining in me before he went to high school on what to expect. I told him everything I knew and he already knew that he could lean on me. I always wanted to see one of his basketball games too. God, I miss you Dillion.

My Mothers Marcia & Cenia helped me grow as well and I know how impactful this news has been for them. I just pray that we all heal from this and live in honor of Dillion. I love you so much and I know you are in a peaceful place my love. You will always be a legend in the hall of fame to us.

“ When my son Shamar came to me in tears with this tragic news I said no this is not true no, I was hurt because my son was hurting, and you were a great person and friend to him and I had high hopes for you in your career, which is why I said I would help you also get your music out to the world. My whole household went silent and you know it’s always loud with all of the children, you were like part of the family. To the parents, siblings, and everyone you all have my deepest condolences and I hate you all are going through this pain and most of all I hate this great always smiling and respectful young man you all raised life and career was cut short. 🥹
