Dad there is so much memories that I have of you it's too much to say on here you were a good father husband to my mother and a good grandfather to my kids. that is something I'm never going to forget how you took me in as your daughter when i was just 9 years old and yes i didnt like the way you drank ur coffee and now i wish you would drink coffee just so i can hear that again and the way you raised Angelica like if she was ur own Thank you so much for that I love you and miss you so much I'm never going to be the same again without you here but I know God needed you up there as well I have an angel watching over me and my kids always and forever thank you for everything I love you if you could hear me I love you and miss you so much i need you hear dad may you rest now

“ There wont be a day that I wont think about you. I'll look for you everywhere. I sat under your avocado tree, in the same place where we found out Paco passed. In the same place that we cried together for the deaths that followed afterwards. This time i sat alone, crying and looking towards the ground. I lifted my head and looked at all of your plants. They looked so beautiful just like your soul. I miss you papi and I know you'll be with me, guiding me for the rest of my life and the lives of Joel and Aliyanna. I love you, We love you, May you rest in peace.
