“ We are truly blessed to have enjoyed a long friendship with Don. Do any of your Allstaterers remember how Don would always smell my hair (Brenda writing this) and act like he was smelling a nice perfume? Funny man! We had lunch with Don just 2 wks. before he passed and will hold on to that memory in our hearts. Doris, you will always be our friend, too. We will miss him very much. God bless all of Don's family. Love, Brenda and Vaden DeJarnette

“ Don-Won was one of my most favorite customers that I had the pleasure of taking care of almost every Sunday Morning at Perkins, him and Doris would come in and I never had to ask what they wanted I just brought it to them and Don would always say Hey Kiddo! And when they would leave out to head to church Don would always say to me 'See ya kiddo! Absolute joy to take care of every Sunday, and sometimes during the week if Doris was on a shopping spree looking for antiques. RIP Don, you are going to be missed very much.
