

Doris Alice Beauchemin

June 6, 1943 - July 23, 2022

Doris Alice Beauchemin (née Genereux) passed away peacefully on July 23rd in Ocoee, Florida near her home in Kissimmee at age 79. Doris was born in Woonsocket, Rhode Island on June 6th 1943. She is survived by her children Jeanne-Marie Freeman (husband Kenneth Freeman), son Jean-Paul Beauchemin, and grandchildren Alyssa, Daniel, David, and Michael Freeman. Doris was predeceased by her husband Robert Beauchemin. Doris touched many lives as a teacher and childcare provider, but her family will remember her most as a loving mother and grandmother who taught them the importance of resilience, tenacity, and humor.

Update (August 27, 2022):

There is a private celebration of life on Friday September 23, 2022.

Tribute Wall

AG

“ My condolences to Doris' family. May you find comfort in the lasting memories. Doris was a wonderful person and always so kind. May she Rest In Peace.

Amy Gleason - July 25, 2022 at 07:23 PM