

Dorothy D. Stephens

July 10, 1924 - September 14, 2016

Dorothy Dean Stephens passed away on Wednesday, September 14, 2016 in Winter Garden, Florida. Dorothy Dean was born in Cobbtown, Georgia in 1924. She was the widow of William Delacy Stephens, sister of the late Frank Stephens of Savannah and the daughter of the late Grace Barrs and Arlie Stephens.

She is survived by her daughter Donna Kay Bush of Orlando, her son John William Stephens of Orlando and her sister-in-law Vera Gillenwater of Savannah, Georgia.

Dorothy Dean also leaves behind three grandchildren Becky Hardy of Orlando, Geoff Bush of Atlanta, and Kimberly Roberts of Orlando, and four great grandchildren.

She was a member of First Baptist Church of Orlando.

Dorothy Dean was a creative and talented artist. She enjoyed baking, sewing, and painting. In the 1980's she ran a doll hospital with her husband in Rosman, NC. They loved the process of restoring, repairing, collecting, and creating dolls, stuffed bears and toys.

A special special thank you to the caring staff at Golden Pond Memory Center in Winter Garden.

Granny was always so full of life and spirit. She was always telling a joke, a funny story or trying to play a trick on somebody. I will miss her dearly!

What a wonderful, fun-loving person she was. Loved the interaction between Bill and her, she was so devastated when he left. Interesting person. Loved her doll collection and their doll business and that cool, old, house at Darien. -Eddie
