

Earl "Joe" Joseph Clark IV

September 18, 1983 - November 16, 2014

Earl Joseph Clark IV promised his wife he'd always watch over them from a pink and purple cloud in the sky.

On November 16, 2014 he began that journey to be with his dad.

When 31-year-old Joe was asked how he wanted to be remembered, he responded, "As a father, husband, son, brother, friend, businessman and of course, Chicago sports fan."

Joe's heart belonged to his wife Amanda Evans-Clark and their 11-month-old daughter, Mira Joey.

Joe was the rock of his family, mother Doreen Soucek Clark, late father "EJ" Clark and brother Nicholas Clark and his girlfriend, Lauren Voskovitch.

Joe liked to say he was the favorite grandson of Jim and Audrey Soucek and Arlene and the late Earl Clark II.

He leaves behind aunts and uncles who he adored, cousins he considered siblings and friends he considered blood.

Joe married into a family who loves him like their own, Tony and Cathi Evans, and grandparents Nancy Anderson, Wilbur and the late Genny Evans. He got two more brothers in Ross Evans and his wife Lauren and Andrew Evans and his girlfriend Kati Powell.

A graduate of Glenbard North High School, Joe loved talking about the glory days playing baseball, Zero Gravity and growing up in Carol Stream, Illinois.

Later at Millikin University, Joe earned a bachelor's degree, made lifelong friends and met his bride.

Joe moved to Florida in 2009 to follow his dreams and be his own boss. He worked tirelessly alongside his cousin, T.J Clark, Uncle and Aunt Jesse and Nancy Fojo to open five Jimmy Johns franchises. Something he was so proud of he often joked he bled mayonnaise.

Joe Clark, 31, left his mark on thousands of people who watched him bravely choose love and life through his most difficult challenges.

In lieu of flowers donations to Mira's college fund can be made out to:
Mira Clark and sent to Chase Bank 7860 Winter Garden Vineland Road
Windermere, FL 34786

A memorial service will be held December 7th at 2pm at Glenbard North High School in Carol Stream, Illinois.

“ I am very sorry for the death of your dear loved one. Although the pain will seem unbearable at times, please find comfort that there is a day coming when this earth will be filled with happy people and peace will be everywhere and Mr. Clark will be there to enjoy it (Psalms 37:10,11,29). My sincere condolences to you.

“ I have a lot of memories of Joe but the first one that sticks out is back at MU in Dr. Tucker's Mass Media class and Joe and I had to come up with a rap about current events and we chose to do it to the theme of the Fresh Prince of Bel-Air. I never laughed so hard in a 30 minuet stretch of time in my entire time!!! Gone to soon my friend. RIP #joestrong

“ Back in 2006 I was on my third deployment overseas. While spending most of my days in the mountains of Afghanistan, I wasn't fortunate enough to enjoy the pleasures of having access to a phone or computer. However, at the tail end of each month we usually spent about 2-3 days at an established base with Phone/internet access. The time difference was something like 10-12 hours, so while it was the middle of the afternoon in the desert, it was the middle of the night state side. I usually spent most of my calling card minutes talking to my then GF...i don't exactly remember the reason,but i had some extra time to kill and minutes to burn so i pulled out my little pocket book of numbers and decided to give Joe a call at some un godly time. The phone rang a couple of times and i figured I would just get his Voice message. After about the 3 or fourth ring he answered. I'm sure he didn't reconize 18 digit number on the caller id...anyway when he found out it was me he said "tom do you know what Fucking Time it is?"...I remember laughing and apologizing...Saying something along the lines of "hey man just wanted to say hi, I'll give you a call another time". Joe would have none of that...we spent a good hour on the phone just catching up. He brought my tired, whethered, beetin mind back home for that short period of time. He asked how he could send me things and wouldn't you know like a month later I got a lovely letter and some magazines. Since he knew he couldn't send me "nudie mags" he took it upon himself to draw me a "naked girl, for my viewing pleasures". That's just the kinda guy he was. Playing baseball with him was the same way. This is a kid who played with the older guys as a Sophmore yet couldn't wait for us to meet him for out Junior/senior years. The way he fought his terrible diagnosis with such pride and courage spilled out onto kids and people whom he has never met. Joe is an amazing person and it's no surprise that we all feel such empty void without him here. He will be missed by many, but I sure as hell no he won't be forgotten. I love you pal...until we meet again...Bye For Now
