“ My apologies. A typo in my words. It should have been written as- every since he was 5 years old.

“ Earl has known me as Aunt Molly ever since it was about 5 years old. It breaks my heart that I will never have the opportunity to see Earl one more time!

*But I'll never forget Earl surprise visit to me many moons ago. He surprised me at my business premises waited on me until I closed. We went out on the town with a friend and at the end of the evening we spent the night with him in his hotel suite. Myí being female and being 10 years older didn't matter to to him: what matters is that you mattered to him and he mattered to you and he knew it! What an unforgettable human being. May you rest in peace my lovely one!!!
Your Aunt Molly*

“ Condolences to the family. I did not work often with Earl over the years but when I did, his positivity was infectious. No matter how brief our interactions were, he made it feel like we were talking as long-time friends. Always had a joyful experience in my opportunities talking with him. He will be missed.

I will miss Earl's many contributions to our worksite...he was so important to what we do here. I'll also miss his quirky sense of humor, and his positive outlook. Nearly every time I asked him how he was, his response was "outstanding"...even though he was obviously not feeling well. We also shared an appreciation of cars and motorcycles, and discussed them occasionally too.

I loved seeing your race-bike in the back of your pickup out in the parking lot. "Earl's gonna have some fun today". And thank you for teaching me not to interrupt.
