Please except my deepest sympathy to you and your family. Please know, that our thoughts and prayers are with you. I hope this poem will give you some comfort during this difficult time.*

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room. Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little -but not too long. And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me-but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know, And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me-but let me go.

“ Ms. Vivian and family,
We are lifting your family up in our prayers. We pray that you will continue to lean on the Lord for your strength in your time of bereavement. Praise the Lord for the wonderful memories of your Mom that you will carry in your heart. We're thankful that God's Word is true, and that your Mom is in her heavenly home with the Lord.

II Corinthians 5:1-8: For we know that if our earthly house, this tent, is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven, 3 if indeed, having been clothed, we shall not be found naked. 4 For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we want to be unclothed, but further clothed, that mortality may be swallowed up by life. 5 Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who also has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

6 So we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord. 7 For we walk by faith, not by sight. 8 We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.

To Richard, Minyon, and the Outlaw family:

The Advancing the Kingdom church family stands with you in prayer, love, and brotherly support especially in this hour. We honor and salute the life of your dear mother. We realize that there is no love like a mother's love. Our church family commends you for surrounding her with love until the end. We pray that such love be expressed in the family continually. May the wind of God's grace and the power of His love mightily sustain you.

“ To the Outlaw Family:

I started praying when I heard of Aunt Earlie's passing. I shared the information with family and knew they would be praying too. We have fond memories of Aunt Earlie and know that she is now home with God.

This being the time it is I know Aunt Earlie would entrust you to God's care knowing that he is able to sustain you. She was a true woman of God and had labored for this time.

We love you all,

“ To My My Dear Friend Ms Vivian Brooks -

Please know that the passing of your mother is the will of God and we know God's will must be done; this is not our abiding place. We are in the land of the dying and are rapidly passing away... Those we have known are known no more; those we love are taken away, but God knowsbest and will always do the best for us. He will be with us all the way.

I am praying for and your family. God Bless and Keep you!

I love you!!!!

“ Dear Carolyn and family,

“The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” Psalm 34:18 "Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4

No matter how old we are, losing a mother is one of the deepest sorrows a heart can know. But her goodness, her caring, and her wisdom live on, like a legacy of love that will always be with you. Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope. May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together as you celebrate a life well lived.

Sending a gentle hug your way, to comfort you, and to let you know that you're on my mind and in my heart today and always.

“ *When the enemy death strikes your grief can be great. It's never the right time to say goodbye to a loved one. Death too to many seems to be a part of life. It's during times such as these that we can find comfort in the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6:9, 10 ~ "Our Father in the heavens, let your name be sanctified. Let your kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also upon earth". Only God's (Psalms 83:18) Kingdom can bring peace, happiness, perfect health, and everlasting life. “ *Dear Vivian and family,
My sincerest and deepest condolences at the loss of your beloved. My thoughts and prayers are continually with you and your family at this time of sorrow. May you find joy and peace in the wonderful memories you've shared, and hope in the promises of God that He will never leave you nor forsake you and has provided for us a Comforter. Just look to God. He has your mother in His loving arms and she's in her new healed body. No more sorrow, no more sickness, no more pain, or cares. Jesus promised her a home over there. Hallelujah! God bless you all.*

“ To the family and friends, I am so sorry for your loss. God provides comfort in these difficult times through promises of hope for the future. A resurrection of all those in the memorial tombs, John 5:28,29, A time when no resident will say “I am sick”... Isaiah 33:24, and Rev 21:4 promises that mourning, pain, and even death will be no more. For now, hold on to your precious memories and may God bless all of you with peace.

In Sympathy and Friendship: No one can experience this sadness as you do, For your feelings are unique and very personal to you... No one can begin to know exactly how you feel, except to know that sorrow such as yours is deep and real. But if you need some comfort and some help to see you through, Just know how much you're cared for by all those who think of you. Keeping you close in thought.
