“ It's one of those days where i'm up until 2-3 am just thinking about all the memories and times we've shared. thank you for always being there when i needed someone to talk to. someone to guide me and let me know that i'm okay and that at least one person is proud of me. i know it's so late to even post a memory or share a thought, but it's that time where i just want to talk to you and hear your voice one more time. i was so excited to spend mine and alex's birthday with you. hearing that you passed felt like i just lost a big piece of all i had left. especially since you know everything that's happened between 2017 and now. i'm so sad and hurt that i can't share the journey that i'm on with you personally but i know you're with me every step of the way and i do talk to you especially when i need a "what would grandpa tell me". thank you for all the amazing memories and i truly wish i got to say goodbye. i can't wait until i can finally see you again and catch up on all the missed time. i love you more than anything. forever and always -lexie

“ My Godfather.. all the words of encouragement, all the deep stares into my eyes to really drive your meaning into my heart, so many conversations and tears and hugs and love. None of it will be forgotten because I am who I am because of your teamwork with Madrina and my parents. It's always sad when someone leaves so unexpectedly but now I know we can talk more than ever before and I can call on your spirit when I need strength or those words you always blessed me with in life.

Thank you from the deepest part of my heart, for being the best Padrino a girl could possibly ask for.

“ Dear Wanda and Edgar's entire family...we are saddened to hear about Edgar's passing. My Mom Durlene and I are truly sorry and feel such a huge void outside of her door at the Winter Park Gardens. The entire community is in pain and we were truly honored to know him. Edgar made my Mom (84 years old) feel welcome and safe in the community. Anytime he saw us he rushed to assist us up and down the stairs near her unit or anytime we felt we were in need. The whole corridor where my mom lives has a void without Edgar and it really hurts thinking about such a wonderful man who was so giving and cared so much about humanity to not see his smiling face. He always made my Mom (and I) feel special and cared for. God bless you and keep you dear Edgar. You will live forever in our hearts!
Our message to All the family and Wanda you will be in our prayers during this time of need and very difficult time of healing.
Love and Prayers,
Ann Louise & Durlene Drake

“ Still in disbelief and very saddened... who will I now text Saturday or Sunday nights to vent about your grandson? Who will I call and cry to when I feel life is cruel and unfair? Who will remind me that although I feel I don't do enough .. you're proud of me? You promised to attend Tito's senior graduation who will represent for him other than me? This was too soon and unexpected!! I pray you forever Rest In Peace and on our ruff days your presence is felt... we will miss you dearly LOVE YOU E watch over my baby, say hello to Chris till we meet again ☐🕊️

“ Edgar my brother. I can't believe that you have left this earth so soon. But it is never to soon to be with the lord and I know that you are right there in heaven with the best of them. I take with me so many wonderful memories of you. Great times with our families when you and Alex moved to Florida. BBQ's, boat rides and even a little business trying to relive our glory years with the nightlife promotions. You were always so compassionate and looked out for me like a little brother always and for that I am grateful beyond words can describe. Please look over your family from up above and send them constant blessings. My children and I have truly felt your passing and want you and your family to know that we love you and that you will be missed. Love Pauly and family.

I am grateful to have spent time with the family even though it was for a short while but the memories last a life time. I saw the love and admiration Edgar had for his family and the love was unconditional. You have all gain an angel who will watch over you and will forever be in your hearts.*

“ Edgar,

Milton and I truly admired the friend, man, father and husband you were. The memories we were blessed to share with you will forever be close to our hearts. The laughter and love you shared with others truly shined in a special light.

This world will never be the same without you. Rest In paradise our dear friend. Until we meet again.

As fate would have it, I learned this very sad news today while I was in the grocery store and, as shocked as I am, I am glad I found out so I can tell you all what a wonderful man Edgar was! I used to live at WPG and my studio apt was right next to the maintenance office. I had the pleasure of going by their door every day and chatting with both he and Raymond as I climbed the 6 stairs to my unit. Edgar was such a calm, faith filled guy. He would always say "What's up Boo-Boo" and it would make me smile. Nothing seemed to faze him. He would "counsel" me on my non-stop running, men, dating, maintenance "helpful hints", etc. When I became a grandmother, we would have countless conversations about grandkids and basically all things LIFE. He always went out of his way to help me with some minor emergencies I would encounter knowing that I lived alone and (sadly) that I didn't know much about "home repair"!

When I moved out of WPG, I moved up the street and discovered that some of my "stuff" wouldn't fit in my new place. I walked back down the hill with my LARGE stainless steel storage shelves that I now could no longer use and he gladly took them from me to put to some good use somewhere. We both got a good laugh at the site of me walking this thing up and down Melrose Avenue.

To Edgar's wife Wanda, his children, grandchildren, and his siblings... I am so sorry for your loss. Edgar had a heart of gold and he was so strong in his faith...he was always positive and full of gratitude, a "glass half full" kind of guy. I know, just in the 5 years that I was blessed to have him in my life, that his family was most important. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.
