“ Sandy....so sorry for your loss. I know that no words can ever make you feel better at this time as the pain is very deep but will ebb over time and will be replaced with fond memories and the love in your heart will always be there. I will miss Ed fussing at me and my trees but know that he is in Gods hands and safe without pain.

“ Many old memories of the Keystone Kops gatherings and travels. What great times we had. He was a real Gentleman and enjoyed seeing his face light up at Lutheran when we saw him, and I showed him the 3-carrot ring. Until we meet again in Heaven Dear Friend. Peggy

“ We send our very deepest condolences, prayers, and love to Sandy and Ed's entire family. Men like Ed are very hard to find. he will be greatly missed by all who knew him. May GOD comfort Sandy and the family and guide them and may we all embrace the great memories we shared with Ed. Our love of Model A Fords brought us together with Sandy and Ed many years ago. Ed is now with GOD and watching over Sandy and the family.

We are blessed to be friends with Ed and Sandy.

Our Love,

Wayne and Elaine Thalasinis

“ He was the kindest most admired man I've ever known. We are his neighbor for 4 years and he was still mowing his yard at 89 !!! If that doesn't say something about him. Plus he treated his beautiful wife with more love and blessed times than anyone could imagine. They were truly meant to be together and a Blessing from God. We miss miss u Mr Ed and will always have such wonderful memories of what a great guy you were. 💕💕💕💕 PS ure yard is beautiful don't you worry. 😊😊😊
