Edie you were always so sweet, cheerful and comforting. I will never forget our adventurous trip home from the Keys and the hilarious stories you would tell. You will be missed and remembered by all who had the pleasure of knowing you<3

“ <3 <3 <3 My heart is heavy, my mind is numb, every thought turns to you...so many memories: The first time we met, when you hugged me tight and Blessed me for Loving your baby Brother...I'll miss those warm hugs! <3 ~ The captivating conversations about God, politics, foreign policy, kids, grand babies and the history of the Imig family ~ The family gatherings and the parties...Girl, NOBODY could throw a party more festive or lay out a more Beautiful tablescape than you! ~ Your natural, God given, talent for decorating, well, ... anything or any place! ~ Your creativity and 'no fear' attitude, when you tackled anything DIY...anything, period! ~ The fact that you were as soft as a kitten, but, with the Heart of a Lioness when anyone dared mess with your family <3 ~ The day you, literally, gave me the sweater off your back <3 , because I was goofy enough to come to VA, in the middle of September, without one of my own ~ The day you first met our Grand Daughter, scooped her up, carried her away and played with her for the rest of the day <3 and how you made sure she never left your home without tiny, little treasures to remember you by <3 ~ The way you welcomed everybody into your home with an open Heart and open arms <3 ~ Your generous nature ~ Your genuine Love of children and animals ~ And the sound of your contagious laugh, oh yes, who could ever forget that side splitting, tears rolling, snot snorting, laugh?!? <3 <3 <3 I've Loved you for 25 years, (yes, even when we bickered), and will carry these memories, and, many more, in my heart, for the rest of the days of my life! Until we meet in Heaven ~~~ <3 <3 <3 I Love you...Kathi

“ I will miss you, my Sister. You always gave all of yourself, in everything you did. You looked after me, protected me and picked me up when I fell...from the time I was just a kid. Every time I found myself in trouble and lost, you took me in and made me just another member of your own family. God Bless You, pain in the butt that I was, you never refused me! I wish I had more time with you, here on Earth, Sis! Just know, you will never be any farther from me than my heart...I will carry you with me throughout every day, every event, of my life. The vision I have in my mind is of you dancing in the sky, every child in Heaven dancing along, behind you...the Pied Piper of Heaven...yep, that's my Sister, Edie! With all my Love ~ Your Little Brother, Rick

“ I am so sad! Edie was so full of life and passionate about so many things and people. We shared some Margaritas at a surprised birthday party just a few weeks ago. My heart goes out to Ken and the family. She will be missed by so many, and thank you for bringing such love and light into the world for all of us!

“ Oh my goodness I loved Edie so much. She was a very kind and loving lady to me and my family as a teenager when I was her son's girlfriend. I'm so shocked and hurt for Joey Chris Nick and Jacob. Please accept my condolences and you all will be in my prayers. Good bless.

“ My dear sweet Edie, I really don't know where to begin. In the trenches of Coffeewood our story began, working hand in hand, side by side. A beautiful friendship that has lasted for years and one that I will always hold dear to my heart. Your laugh would make others want to laugh even though you felt like crying. What I wouldn't do to hear it one more time. You weren't a friend you were family, thank you for all the good memories and thank you for allowing me to be a part of your family. I wouldn't be where I am today without you. When I was in nursing school trying to balance work school and being a single mother you stepped in and took Chris under those strong wings, you made it possible for "lil" Chris to have wonderful summer vacations when I couldn't. You truly were a Angel on earth, a Phenomenal woman.... until we meet again my friend.

“ The loss of your life is sad and tragic... But the way you lived your life when I knew you years ago was not.. You laughed at everything and loved the sound of children all around you... You loved MY children and found need things to do with them.... You, yourself are a child of God... Now sitting at His right hand. God Bless you and your family

Tina Brent - November 06, 2015 at 07:41 PM

“ Oh, Edie, I've Loved you every day of my Life, even when we didn't see eye to eye, I loved you. Whether moving across county or just family time outs, we always found each other and there was always Love. God Blessed me when he gave me you I'm a little lost as to how it's going to be without you. You were the glue, that held it all together.. Your the only Hero I've ever known....No Body could have been a better Sister than you. I think back in school..lol...no one would mess with me or Ricky, they knew they would have to deal with you..lol. No one could ride in on a white Horse like you could, Sis!! And now I will miss you every day of my life. I'm so thankful you came to see me on my Birthday, I will treasure that. forever, amongst many other memories I learned from and through you. Edie, for the time being, enjoy God, Mom and Dad and All The Wonders..... I will see you again, for eternity
