

Ediltrudis Heinsen

January 8, 1936 - December 26, 2016

Ediltrudis (Edy) Pozo Heinsen went home to be with the Lord on December 26 at Florida Hospital East in Orlando, FL. She was the only daughter of Nemencio Pozo and Amantina Matos born on January 8, 1936 in La Vega, Dominican Republic.

She is survived by her three sons Jose (Demerise), Henry (Edith), and Manlio (Marisela); her grandchildren Jonathan (Sabina), Angelique, Chayel, Blanca, Madeline, Joshua, Jaynee and Jayden. Edy's greatest achievement was being a daughter, mother and grandmother. She was looking forward to being a great-grandmother to her grandson Jonathan's first-born daughter. She was very proud of her three sons and the women they chose to be their wives. She was her grandchildren's biggest cheerleader regardless of what sport or activity they participated in. She let them know that they can do whatever they set their minds to.

Aside from her greatest achievement, Edy owned a bakery with her ex-husband, Ernesto Heinsen for many years. Her cakes were enjoyed and talked about by many in Corona, NY where she had the bakery. She was an avid baseball fan and the Mets' #1 fan. She played baseball into her sixties and was well known in her neighborhood back in New York for her athleticism even playing better than some men. She also enjoyed bowling and participated in several bowling leagues up to three years ago.

She was one to hardly get angry, but she was hardheaded and no one could change her mind when she felt strongly about something. One of the things she wholeheartedly believed and repeated on more than one occasion was “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.” (Rev 22:13) She loved and was quick to help anyone who needed her help. Edy leaves a legacy of love behind.
