“ Mitchell Blake here. I am one of Edna's grandsons, and it really pained me when I heard that Nana passed. However, this gives me the strength to keep on "fighting the fine fight of the faith", and push on into Paradise-- with Jehovah God's help, of course-- so that I can see Nana and so many others that I lost again, but forever. If what I'm saying doesn't make sense, Jehovah's Witnesses will refer you to the Bible's view of the condition of the dead at this link: <http://www.jw.org/en/bible-teachings/questions/when-you-die/>

“ My condolences to the Blake family. My thoughts and prayers go out to your whole family. Psalms 147:3 says God, "is healing the broken hearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots." May Jehovah God bring you comfort and peace.

“ There are too many memories I have. She was my support in the ministry and helped me reach goals I thought I could never achieve. She was a great person with a beautiful personality. She was so fiesty and full of life. Best of all, she was a hard working servant to Jehovah. Our field serivce experiences were the best. I always loved when we did street witnessing. She would approach people and say, "Good morning." and they would snap back with, "No thank you." And she would come back with, "no thank you to good morning?" It would make the person stop and listen. Oh my Sister Blake, I will miss her will all my heart. I love her and I cant wait to hold her again.

“ My favorite memory of sister Blake was me working in the ministry the first time. We talked about the ministry but we started talking about what she loved so much flowers it was such a privledge to know and work along side such a encouraging person
