“ I spent my weekends at Eddie's house, we are cousins and Lillian was my closest friend. I will always remember, from the time we were little, his smile and gentle ways. The family gatherings in the basement of the house, he played host, the trip to the poconos where there was no hot water, and when we took a rubber raft down the rapids. And the midnight sandwiches where we would stay up and talk. He was always so close to his Dad. He was funny, quiet, and respectful. He will be missed, Rest In Peace my cousin.
